

THE DAILY APPEAL

TUESDAY DECEMBER 21, 1858

Beautiful Suburban Property

We have for sale one and one-half acres beautiful suburban property, situated on the corner of State Line road and McLean Avenue, two miles east of the city. This property is in all fence, and susceptible of being divided into three building lots. We desire to sell it to some body to whom it will be safe, but if not disposed of this way, it will be divided and sold at public auction on THURSDAY, the 23d day of December.

TERMS.—One-third cash, one-third in six months, and the balance in twelve months, without interest.

Persons desirous to inspect the property will call on Col. C. D. McLellan, Thomas Bettis, Mr. Myers, Mr. Littlejohn, or Mr. Lynch, on the premises.

For terms, at private sale, apply Col. G. Lock, or to

McCLEANAN, TRICKEY & DILL, Appeal Office.

GODS.—Dearly Marched Beau takes a very morning ride round for the pleasure of Natchez.

RESCUE.—A County—Fourteen cases of an interesting character employed the attention of the Rescuers yesterday.

COTTON HALL.—Attention is called to the advertisement of this School, in another column. It will be seen that a most acceptable school is furnished every day at 10 o'clock.

THE WEATHER.—Two words—wind and misery—will describe the weather yesterday and its consequences, the subject is painful for description.

THE CHOCIE.—Capt. D. H. Silver, of the Chocie has purchased the live boat Chocie, which he will command. We have learned who is to be his successor on the Chocie.

ARRESTED.—M. HOFFSTADT was arrested, by the police, yesterday, on the charge of not returning a horse which he had hired from a stable in Arkansas.

LEAVING.—Mr. E. CARMICHAEL the active, intelligent and tried-hearted attorney at law, has resigned his place and is leaving the city—the grand old law firm and the city an excellent officer by the choice.

TELEGRAMS.—A few words and useful messages we thank our friend, H. S. Dean, clerk of the Memphis; for his papers we are obliged to Mr. BARKER of Adams Express and HOLIDAY of the Atlantic.

G. B. LOCKE & CO., will sell this day, at 10 o'clock A. M., at their auction room, 262 Main street, a valuable Mulette woman, twenty-six years old. Sold for cash. Title perfect.

ATTENTION is called to the advertisement of J. S. MIRELL & CO., in Provost's Block. They have a complete and fresh assortment of family groceries, which they are selling at reasonable prices.

THE PALM TREE.—The Palm Tree and its Restaurant Society, will be the subject of the Rev. Mr. Faxon's lecture at Old Folger's Hall; and if we consider the relations in which it stands to us, shall no doubt for one of the general, humorous lectures, that the Reverend gentleman delivers. In geography it gave a name to Palmyra; in poetry it is the palm tree; in art, the palm tree; in literature, the palm tree; in life, the palm tree; in every life has its palm days; in manufacture palm soap, palm oil, palm wine is a product we are all familiar with. In the household of various nations the palm grows greatly in a manufactured state, and we understand the very best of ladies' hoops are made from its palm; and palm oil, palm wine, palm nuts, palm shells, palm ribs, and palm stems. Sale positive, regardless of the weather. Term cash.

DWYERS HORN RINGER.—Mr. ROBERT BAKER, near Center Hill, Hillsboro county, Miss., had the misfortune to have his dwelling house burned on the 17th December. The fire originated in the kitchen adjoining a dwelling house on the property, and all efforts to subdue the flames were of no avail. He lost all his furniture. Total loss supposed to be $2,000.

FLENTON HORN-PACKART.—At their depots, cause of Mowers and Scythes, have made arrangements to receive and supply all customers. They come packed in ice, and are fresh and good. We sell them as fast as they can be sent, and employ no agents. These oysters are the best thing that can be taken for eating or for recovering from sickness.

COAL.—There has been a considerable loss of coal boats about the falls at Louisville lately. The Cincinnati Commercial, of December 16, says: "In order to meet the demand for imports, we have sent to the coal fields we will state sixteen or eighteen tons of boats are all that have as yet started South. Of this number, as we learn, from Capt. LOCKART, superintendent, six pair went through the canal Monday, and five pair yesterday."

CORRIGAN IN STREETS.—There is much complaint of cotton dealers filling the streets with cotton bales in various localities. Cotton merchants ought either to wear the cotton on their own persons, or pay the city tax for the same. A person who would not be allowed to hang his clothes in the street and dry her linens on it, and what right has the cotton merchant in the street that is denied to any white washwoman?"

HOMEGOODS.—This panoramic delineation of the life and blemishes of P. T. Barnum, was put on the stage last night. As a work of art, it possesses great merit. It cannot fail to draw whatever Barnum and his traits of character are known. His execution reflects great credit upon the artist, Mr. ROBERTS, who has been some three years in completing it. It will be placed on exhibition again Thursday next.

A NEW ORL.—An ex, befuddled with trifles, followed by his wife and crew, passed through our principal streets yesterday; it was a splendid animal, of a bold, sedentary disposition; it has taken three premiums, and was raised by John DILLEN, Esq., who resides near St. Louis. It will be killed and disposed of for a sum to be named.

The subscriber, wishing to retire from the clothing business, are desirous of closing out their large and well selected stock, at first cost for cash. Wholesale and retail buyers will be appreciated.

W. C. BROWN, 241 South Main-street, Memphis, Tenn., will continue the same business, and will be appreciated.

THE CLOTHING TRADE.—An old age comes creeping on, it brings many afflictions, loss of appetite and weakless impairs the health, and want of activity makes the mind disengaged and unhappy. In case of any infirmities, we have a physician in our city to Memphis, Tenn., who intends opening a splendid jewelry store, far surpassing in value any other in the city.

He will be a surety, active agent, in many respects to keep the reputation of the stand up to the faltering condition in which Mr. P. leaves it.

JOHN BROWN.—John Brown died yesterday at 12 m. in his 70th year, aged 70 years.

THE CLOTHING TRADE.—An old age comes creeping on, it brings many afflictions, loss of appetite and weakless impairs the health, and want of activity makes the mind disengaged and unhappy. In case of any infirmities, we have a physician in our city to Memphis, Tenn., who intends opening a splendid jewelry store, far surpassing in value any other in the city.

He will be a surety, active agent, in many respects to keep the reputation of the stand up to the faltering condition in which Mr. P. leaves it.

JOHN BROWN.—John Brown died yesterday at 12 m. in his 70th year, aged 70 years.

THE CLOTHING TRADE.—An old age comes creeping on, it brings many afflictions, loss of appetite and weakless impairs the health, and want of activity makes the mind disengaged and unhappy. In case of any infirmities, we have a physician in our city to Memphis, Tenn., who intends opening a splendid jewelry store, far surpassing in value any other in the city.

He will be a surety, active agent, in many respects to keep the reputation of the stand up to the faltering condition in which Mr. P. leaves it.

JOHN BROWN.—John Brown died yesterday at 12 m. in his 70th year, aged 70 years.

THE CLOTHING TRADE.—An old age comes creeping on, it brings many afflictions, loss of appetite and weakless impairs the health, and want of activity makes the mind disengaged and unhappy. In case of any infirmities, we have a physician in our city to Memphis, Tenn., who intends opening a splendid jewelry store, far surpassing in value any other in the city.

He will be a surety, active agent, in many respects to keep the reputation of the stand up to the faltering condition in which Mr. P. leaves it.

JOHN BROWN.—John Brown died yesterday at 12 m. in his 70th year, aged 70 years.

THE CLOTHING TRADE.—An old age comes creeping on, it brings many afflictions, loss of appetite and weakless impairs the health, and want of activity makes the mind disengaged and unhappy. In case of any infirmities, we have a physician in our city to Memphis, Tenn., who intends opening a splendid jewelry store, far surpassing in value any other in the city.

He will be a surety, active agent, in many respects to keep the reputation of the stand up to the faltering condition in which Mr. P. leaves it.

JOHN BROWN.—John Brown died yesterday at 12 m. in his 70th year, aged 70 years.

THE CLOTHING TRADE.—An old age comes creeping on, it brings many afflictions, loss of appetite and weakless impairs the health, and want of activity makes the mind disengaged and unhappy. In case of any infirmities, we have a physician in our city to Memphis, Tenn., who intends opening a splendid jewelry store, far surpassing in value any other in the city.

He will be a surety, active agent, in many respects to keep the reputation of the stand up to the faltering condition in which Mr. P. leaves it.

JOHN BROWN.—John Brown died yesterday at 12 m. in his 70th year, aged 70 years.

THE CLOTHING TRADE.—An old age comes creeping on, it brings many afflictions, loss of appetite and weakless impairs the health, and want of activity makes the mind disengaged and unhappy. In case of any infirmities, we have a physician in our city to Memphis, Tenn., who intends opening a splendid jewelry store, far surpassing in value any other in the city.

He will be a surety, active agent, in many respects to keep the reputation of the stand up to the faltering condition in which Mr. P. leaves it.

JOHN BROWN.—John Brown died yesterday at 12 m. in his 70th year, aged 70 years.

THE CLOTHING TRADE.—An old age comes creeping on, it brings many afflictions, loss of appetite and weakless impairs the health, and want of activity makes the mind disengaged and unhappy. In case of any infirmities, we have a physician in our city to Memphis, Tenn., who intends opening a splendid jewelry store, far surpassing in value any other in the city.

He will be a surety, active agent, in many respects to keep the reputation of the stand up to the faltering condition in which Mr. P. leaves it.

JOHN BROWN.—John Brown died yesterday at 12 m. in his 70th year, aged 70 years.

THE CLOTHING TRADE.—An old age comes creeping on, it brings many afflictions, loss of appetite and weakless impairs the health, and want of activity makes the mind disengaged and unhappy. In case of any infirmities, we have a physician in our city to Memphis, Tenn., who intends opening a splendid jewelry store, far surpassing in value any other in the city.

He will be a surety, active agent, in many respects to keep the reputation of the stand up to the faltering condition in which Mr. P. leaves it.

JOHN BROWN.—John Brown died yesterday at 12 m. in his 70th year, aged 70 years.

THE CLOTHING TRADE.—An old age comes creeping on, it brings many afflictions, loss of appetite and weakless impairs the health, and want of activity makes the mind disengaged and unhappy. In case of any infirmities, we have a physician in our city to Memphis, Tenn., who intends opening a splendid jewelry store, far surpassing in value any other in the city.

He will be a surety, active agent, in many respects to keep the reputation of the stand up to the faltering condition in which Mr. P. leaves it.

JOHN BROWN.—John Brown died yesterday at 12 m. in his 70th year, aged 70 years.

THE CLOTHING TRADE.—An old age comes creeping on, it brings many afflictions, loss of appetite and weakless impairs the health, and want of activity makes the mind disengaged and unhappy. In case of any infirmities, we have a physician in our city to Memphis, Tenn., who intends opening a splendid jewelry store, far surpassing in value any other in the city.

He will be a surety, active agent, in many respects to keep the reputation of the stand up to the faltering condition in which Mr. P. leaves it.

JOHN BROWN.—John Brown died yesterday at 12 m. in his 70th year, aged 70 years.

THE CLOTHING TRADE.—An old age comes creeping on, it brings many afflictions, loss of appetite and weakless impairs the health, and want of activity makes the mind disengaged and unhappy. In case of any infirmities, we have a physician in our city to Memphis, Tenn., who intends opening a splendid jewelry store, far surpassing in value any other in the city.

He will be a surety, active agent, in many respects to keep the reputation of the stand up to the faltering condition in which Mr. P. leaves it.

JOHN BROWN.—John Brown died yesterday at 12 m. in his 70th year, aged 70 years.

THE CLOTHING TRADE.—An old age comes creeping on, it brings many afflictions, loss of appetite and weakless impairs the health, and want of activity makes the mind disengaged and unhappy. In case of any infirmities, we have a physician in our city to Memphis, Tenn., who intends opening a splendid jewelry store, far surpassing in value any other in the city.

He will be a surety, active agent, in many respects to keep the reputation of the stand up to the faltering condition in which Mr. P. leaves it.

JOHN BROWN.—John Brown died yesterday at 12 m. in his 70th year, aged 70 years.

THE CLOTHING TRADE.—An old age comes creeping on, it brings many afflictions, loss of appetite and weakless impairs the health, and want of activity makes the mind disengaged and unhappy. In case of any infirmities, we have a physician in our city to Memphis, Tenn., who intends opening a splendid jewelry store, far surpassing in value any other in the city.

He will be a surety, active agent, in many respects to keep the reputation of the stand up to the faltering condition in which Mr. P. leaves it.

JOHN BROWN.—John Brown died yesterday at 12 m. in his 70th year, aged 70 years.

THE CLOTHING TRADE.—An old age comes creeping on, it brings many afflictions, loss of appetite and weakless impairs the health, and want of activity makes the mind disengaged and unhappy. In case of any infirmities, we have a physician in our city to Memphis, Tenn., who intends opening a splendid jewelry store, far surpassing in value any other in the city.

He will be a surety, active agent, in many respects to keep the reputation of the stand up to the faltering condition in which Mr. P. leaves it.

JOHN BROWN.—John Brown died yesterday at 12 m. in his 70th year, aged 70 years.

THE CLOTHING TRADE.—An old age comes creeping on, it brings many afflictions, loss of appetite and weakless impairs the health, and want of activity makes the mind disengaged and unhappy. In case of any infirmities, we have a physician in our city to Memphis, Tenn., who intends opening a splendid jewelry store, far surpassing in value any other in the city.

He will be a surety, active agent, in many respects to keep the reputation of the stand up to the faltering condition in which Mr. P. leaves it.

JOHN BROWN.—John Brown died yesterday at 12 m. in his 70th year, aged 70 years.

THE CLOTHING TRADE.—An old age comes creeping on, it brings many afflictions, loss of appetite and weakless impairs the health, and want of activity makes the mind disengaged and unhappy. In case of any infirmities, we have a physician in our city to Memphis, Tenn., who intends opening a splendid jewelry store, far surpassing in value any other in the city.

He will be a surety, active agent, in many respects to keep the reputation of the stand up to the faltering condition in which Mr. P. leaves it.

JOHN BROWN.—John Brown died yesterday at 12 m. in his 70th year, aged 70 years.

THE CLOTHING TRADE.—An old age comes creeping on, it brings many afflictions, loss of appetite and weakless impairs the health, and want of activity makes the mind disengaged and unhappy. In case of any infirmities, we have a physician in our city to Memphis, Tenn., who intends opening a splendid jewelry store, far surpassing in value any other in the city.

He will be a surety, active agent, in many respects to keep the reputation of the stand up to the faltering condition in which Mr. P. leaves it.

JOHN BROWN.—John Brown died yesterday at 12 m. in his 70th year, aged 70 years.

THE CLOTHING TRADE.—An old age comes creeping on, it brings many afflictions, loss of appetite and weakless impairs the health, and want of activity makes the mind disengaged and unhappy. In case of any infirmities, we have a physician in our city to Memphis, Tenn., who intends opening a splendid jewelry store, far surpassing in value any other in the city.

He will be a surety, active agent, in many respects to keep the reputation of the stand up to the faltering condition in which Mr. P. leaves it.

JOHN BROWN.—John Brown died yesterday at 12 m. in his 70th year, aged 70 years.

THE CLOTHING TRADE.—An old age comes creeping on, it brings many afflictions, loss of appetite and weakless impairs the health, and want of activity makes the mind disengaged and unhappy. In case of any infirmities, we have a physician in our city to Memphis, Tenn., who intends opening a splendid jewelry store, far surpassing in value any other in the city.

He will be a surety, active agent, in many respects to keep the reputation of the stand up to the faltering condition in which Mr. P. leaves it.

JOHN BROWN.—John Brown died yesterday at 12 m. in his 70th year, aged 70 years.

THE CLOTHING TRADE.—An old age comes creeping on, it brings many afflictions, loss of appetite and weakless impairs the health, and want of activity makes the mind disengaged and unhappy. In case of any infirmities, we have a physician in our city to Memphis, Tenn., who intends opening a splendid jewelry store, far surpassing in value any other in the city.

He will be a surety, active agent, in many respects to keep the reputation of the stand up to the faltering condition in which Mr. P. leaves it.

JOHN BROWN.—John Brown died yesterday at 12 m. in his 70th year, aged 70 years.

THE CLOTHING TRADE.—An old age comes creeping on, it brings many afflictions, loss of appetite and weakless impairs the health, and want of activity makes the mind disengaged and unhappy. In case of any infirmities, we have a physician in our city to Memphis, Tenn., who intends opening a splendid jewelry store, far surpassing in value any other in the city.

He will be a surety, active agent, in many respects to keep the reputation of the stand up to the faltering condition in which Mr. P. leaves it.

JOHN BROWN.—John Brown died yesterday at 12 m. in his 70th year, aged 70 years.

THE CLOTHING TRADE.—An old age comes creeping on, it brings many afflictions, loss of appetite and weakless impairs the health, and want of activity makes